- 16 oz. Macaroni and Cheese
- 16 oz. Panko Breadcrumbs
- 12 oz. Flour
- 6 Eggs
- 3 ea. Fully Cooked 6oz Chicken Breast

Instructions:

1. On a sheet pan with wax paper, spread out Macaroni and Cheese. Put in the freezer until frozen solid, about 4-6 hours or overnight.
2. Using a 3 in. ring cookie cutter, cut pucks from the sheet of macaroni and cheese.
3. Completely coat the pucks in flour, then coat them in a wash of whisked egg. Next, coat in panko before returning to the freezer for 1-2 hours.
4. Meanwhile, season and bake chicken breasts until an internal temperature of 165°F is reached.
5. Shred the chicken breasts and toss in a bowl with the barbeque sauce.
6. Fry the macaroni and cheese pucks in oil until heated through, golden brown, and crispy.
7. Plate the slider with the fried macaroni and cheese, then the chicken, and top it off with the Deluxe Slaw.
